Allegation	Source #1: (U) 17 August 2017. Micro-Syria News Agency reported the Official "Raqqa silent slaughter" page on Facebook accused the international CF airstrikes of killing nearly 30 people at Muawiya neighborhood in eastern Raqqa. The report claimed eleven people been identified, mostly from al-Sayer family. Is this in Airwars? YES August 17th 2017: (S1206) Mu'awiya school area/ Mal'ab Al-Aswad area, منوبة مدرسة Raqqa city, Raqqa governorate, Syria Summary: Thirty civilians including four children and two women from three families died and dozens more were injured in an alleged Coalition airstrike on Raqqa, according to local sources. Reports said that the entire Al-Sayer family died in the strike – along with multiple members of other families. There was, however, some confusion about the location of the event. According to Raqqa is Being Slaughtered Silently – who put the death toll at 30 – the Al-Sayer family died in the Mu'awiua school area. However, Ahmad Shbli reported that the family were killed in a strike on the Mal'ab Al- Aswad area, along with Idan al-Abo al-Issa and his wife. Sharqiya Voice, also blaming the Coalition, said that the Al-Sayer family died in the Mu'awiya school district. Sound and Picture provided the most detail on the event, reporting that "30 civilians were killed and dozens were injured in an air strike by the International Air Force aircraft targeting a residential building near the school of Muawiya bin Abi Sufian in the neighborhood of unity in the city of Raqqa. Three civilian families were killed in a coalition air strike targeting the building in which they live, totalling least 30 people, most of them women and children. The correspondent
